

DOOR helps groups see the face of God in the city. Through weekends in the city, participants immerse themselves in urban life, serve in community-based ministries and reflect on the message of the Psalmist: "God is in the midst of the city." Psalm 46:5.

February 13-15

There are between 12 and 15,000 people who are homeless in Atlanta. Participants will serve in homeless ministries, stay the night in the Central Night Shelter as overnight volunteers and learn from folks who serve the homeless population.

DOOR is a joint Presbyterian & Mennonite organization that helps individuals and groups engage in urban ministry.
